Virginia Peninsula Community College Code of Ethics

Virginia Peninsula Community College is committed to supporting a collaborative environment noteworthy for its civility, integrity and mutual respect. The Code of Ethics establishes high standards of professionalism for employees and students.

Excellence - We establish high standards in and out of the classroom and strive for excellence in all we do.

Respect - We respect every individual and practice civility in our communication and conduct.

Integrity – We reflect the principles of honesty, fairness, and integrity in our communication and action to create a just and equitable learning and working environment.

Diversity - We promote an inclusive working and learning environment with respect for and understanding of our individual differences, diverse cultures, and beliefs.

Responsibility - We are accountable for our decisions and actions, and we exercise good stewardship of human and material resources.

Compliance - We uphold the regulations, codes and statutes of the Commonwealth of Virginia and the policies, procedures, and protocols of the Virginia Community College System and Virginia Peninsula Community College.

Cooperation - We are committed to working collaboratively to achieve our goals.
